

Land Registers Interconnected

Discussion on the End-Users' Views

Katri Tammsaar

Centre of Registers and Information Systems
Estonia

09.-10.05.2019

LRI MS Connection / Iri-ms.eu

This presentation was funded by the European Union's Justice
Programme (2014-2020).

BRZ

Funded by the Justice Programme of the European Union

Who would be the most likely users of the LRI Service?

In August 2018, the Ministry of justice and RIK jointly conducted a small survey among the selected state offices and organisations in Estonia to map the prospective usage of the LRI service.

Respondents of the survey:

Courts: Supreme Court, Administrative Court, Circuit Court, County Courts

State offices: Prosecutor's Office, Tax and Customs Board, Police and Border Guard Board, Internal Security Service

Notaries: Estonian Chamber of Notaries

A wide circle of specialists, officials, experts

Supreme Court, Administrative Court, Circuit Court, County Courts

- Court case advisers
- In certain cases the consultants
- judges
- Advocate generals
- Executive secretaries
- Leading advocates
- Analysts
- Court chairmen/assistants
- Head of the office

A wide circle of specialists, officials, experts

Prosecutor's Office, Tax and Customs Board, Police and Border Guard Board, Internal Security Service, Estonian Chamber of Notaries

- Prosecutors
- Assistant prosecutor
- Debtors
- Senior or special specialists
- Proceeding officials
- Auditors
- Lawyers
- Criminal Police Staff: investigators, trackers, analysts
- Residency and visa officials
- Border and migration monitoring staff
- Notaries
- Other staff of notary offices

Conducting of duties where land register data is necessary:

- Cases involving property, such as property distribution, securing action, insolvency detection.
- Conduct of court proceedings.
- Proving the financial situation of debtors.
- Recovery of tax arrears
- Tax proceedings
- Pre-trial investigations
- analysis of cases suspected of money laundering and terrorism funding
- cross-border crime prevention
- Succession proceedings
- And others

09.-10.05.2019
LRI MS Connection / lri-ms.eu

This presentation was funded by
the European Union's Justice
Programme (2014-2020).

